Lone Eagle flies with 'Temps'

The Hollywood Reporter1 October 2004 | From HollywoodReporter.com | See recent The Hollywood Reporter news

Toronto-based Lone Eagle Entertainment has cut a deal with Fox World for the worldwide format rights to the comedy/reality series The Temps. The series is described as a hidden-camera look at the world of temporary employees and the struggles they face going into unfamiliar workplaces. Fox World, the format sales unit of Fox Television Studios, will shop The Temps to potential buyers later this month at MIPCOM. Lone Eagle at present is producing 10 hourlong episodes of the series, created by Lone Eagle president Michael Geddes, with Global Television Network for its Canadian debut.
