

Lone Eagle Entertainment Ltd. wraps principal photography on "You Gotta Eat Here!" for Food Network Canada.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO, ON – February 22, 2011) – Lone Eagle Entertainment Ltd. (www.loneeagle.tv) has just completed principal photography on season one of a hilarious new television series for Food Network Canada entitled "You Gotta Eat Here!" This 13 episode, half hour television series sends our charming, funny and food-obsessed host, comedian John Catucci, on a quest to find Canada's most delicious, mouthwatering, over-the-top comfort food. He's visiting great joints, greasy spoons, and legendary restaurants to taste the food that made them famous, and to meet the colourful characters that make each one of them institutions. John dives into the kitchens to find out what makes these signature recipes so darn good. Health food? Not on this show baby! Bring on the cheese, bacon and BBQ!

"Never before on television have Canadians seen so many mouth watering, awesome, home-cooked food creations that this great country has to offer", said Michael Geddes, President of Lone Eagle Entertainment Ltd. "We salute the great restaurants and the many hidden gems we visited from coast to coast."

Michael Geddes and Sheldon Teicher will serve as the Executive Producers, alongside Rachel Horvath as Producer, D'Arcy Butler as Director, and Sarah Nixey as Associate Producer.

JOHN CATUCCI is a canadian sketch comedian, singer and actor. He is a member of The Minnesota Wrecking Crew and the musical comedy duo The DooWops, with David Mesiano. Some of John's film and television credits include The Tuxedo, starring Jackie Chan, Toronto 1's The Toronto Show, CBC's To Die Four and The Sean Cullen Show, the feature film First Time Caller, The Comedy Network's Liocracy, and ABC's Movie of the Week Kiss My Act. John has guest starred a number of times on Global TV's Train 48, and is a series regular on the CBC children's show The Doodlebops, presently in its third season, as well as a lead in the Comedy Network original series Punched Up.

"You Gotta Eat Here!" is produced by Lone Eagle Entertainment and will make its season premiere fall 2011 on Food Network Canada.
